1. Basic Plan and Policy:

A. To infiltrate a two-man reconnaissance team into JBTRADE in the neighboring area of Identity (1). The target date for SHADED is 1 June, 1953. The infiltration is to be accomplished via an over-land route established by the home office, as specified in DIR-16868, dated 29 August, 1952. Team to remain in target area approximately three weeks.

B. Mission:

(1) To contact friends known to be anti-communist and establish contact for Fall, 1953. To explore safe havens, i.e., safe areas for follow-up mission. (Names and location of contacts are identical with those which applied to Operation SIMMER in Identity (1) area.)

(2) To collect and bring out any and all available JBTRADE identity documents, border passes, etc. The above items are to be obtained through payment, theft, or any other feasible means.

(3) To observe and gather all available and precise information on current security measures employed in target area by the JBTRADE Militia, Security Police, and Border Guards.

C. Operational Time Schedule:

(1) The time schedule, subject to change dependent on hazards and obstacles which team may encounter, is as follows:

- a. 23 May - Agents finish training
- b. 24 May - transfer agents from training sight to Identity (5)
- c. 25-28 May - Briefing by Towstone
- d. 29 May - Transfer agents to Identity (4) by air
- e. 30 May - Relinquish custody of agents to Identity (4)
- f. 30-31 May - Agents to receive operational supplies and final briefing
- g. 1 June - Turn over agents to FPBERM
- h. 4 June - Agents infiltrate JBTRADE
- i. 25 June - Agents exfiltrate JBTRADE
- j. 28 June - Reception of agents at Identity (4)

B. Documentation

Documentation is being prepared by MKTOPAZ. Various sources are being exploited and agent's personal knowledge of locales and customs is being used. Documents will be the JBTRADE Identity Bulletin and Military Service Record (for enlisted men) for each individual. These have been found necessary as a minimum. There will also be various supporting papers for each individual cover story, i.e., baptismal certificate, letter of recommendation from former employer, etc. The documentation will not be identical for each man, but will be as complete as current information from JBTRADE permits.

C. Security

- (1) Agents have been granted operational clearance; ☐ DIR-20120; ☐ DIR-45799
- (2) Secrecy agreements have been signed by agents
- (3) Agents are in custody of training staff at all times
- (4) Upon completion of training, agents will be in custody of ☐ until such custody is relinquished to Identity (4) Station.
- (5) A safe house has been established in Identity (4), where agents will be in custody until their transfer to FPBERM.

4. Finances

A. Funds, in JBTRADE currency, have been obtained from the home office. The amount determined, as a result of queries of the agents and most recent arrivals from JBTRADE, is 7,500 units per man. This has been computed to sustain the individual for a maximum of four (4) weeks.

B. The agents' contracts stipulate remuneration accruing to them while on their mission and amounts to be paid after return. The agents' rate of pay is as follows:

- (1) $100.00 per month while in training
- (2) 200.00 per month while on mission
- (3) Bonus, to be determined by Headquarters, upon completion of successful mission.

Breakdown of object classification:

- 02 Travel expense chargeable to project
- 05 Rents and Utility Services
- 07 Other Admin. Contractual Services
- 071 Compensation to Agents, Cut-Outs, Informants
- 077 Indigenous Housekeeping Personal Services
- 08 Supplies and Materials (Expendable)

JBTRADE currency - 15,000 units

The above estimate represents financial requirements for Operation SHADED.

- (15) JBTRADE shirts, underwear, socks
- (16) 2 sweaters, European type, turtle-neck
- (17) 1 camera

The foregoing items are to be sterilized if they are other than JBTRADE. JBTRADE items will be utilized where possible.

B. Support: Support is being given by the following units in the procurement of clothing, equipment, documentation, and transportation:

- (1) SGCIDER Mission is assisting in procurement of equipment and training
- (2) LCDRINK has been requested to assist in procurement of JBTRADE clothing, ref. FRAN 5524 dated August, 1952.
- (3) MKTOPAZ is preparing documentation
- (4) Identity (4) Mission has arranged for holding in safe-house, dispatching and reception of agents
- (5) Air Support will furnish necessary transport to dispatch point, thereby precluding the necessity of separate documentation and cover to move agents into dispatch area. QKBROIL to furnish JBTRADE speaker escort officer.
- (6) Identity (4) will coordinate delivery and return of agents for overland movement to and from JBTRADE, as specified in C-843.

6. Communications Plan

A. W/T communication will not be used in Operation SHADED, therefore the team will be instructed to communicate with us using postal cards depicting the country side. Information received from most recently arrived JBTRADES indicate that postal cards are easily sent out of JBTRADE through the mail and no identification is required at post offices.

Arrangements will be laid on with Identity (2) to intercept all mail addressed to the following fictitious Identity (3) and to be picked up by ☐ who will, in turn, notify ☐ by the most expeditious means.

Following are the texts of the postcards to indicate certain situations:

(1) Upon safe arrival in JBTRADE, the text will contain the following information in the JBTRADE language -

"I haven't written to you for a long time because I have been sick."

(2) In the event plans for exfiltration from JBTRADE cannot be carried out according to schedule, the following text will indicate it -

"We had much grief in our family."

(3) In the event one member is apprehended and the other gets away, the text will be as follows -

"My brother died in a truck accident."

(4) In event they are both jailed and have a possibility to write, the text will be as follows -

"We have been sent to a course on traitors."

(5) Prior to departing from JBTRADE, a postcard with the following text will be forwarded -

"Of my summer vacation of 14 days I spent 10 days at Predeal."

Note: The second cipher indicates the number of days from the message date in which they hope to cross the border.

7. Reception and Return

Reception of the agents will be same as original point of dispatch. Time of reception will be determined by FPBERM.

8. External Coordination and Support

Intercept coverage indicated in Paragraph 6.A to be arranged by ☐ through Salzburg Station.

9. Remarks

A. Reception party for agents will consist of ☐ and one member from Identity (4) Mission. Arrangements will be made with Air Support for agents' return to home base.

B. Upon completion of mission, agents will be debriefed and carried.

C. Upon successful completion of Operation SHADED, it is anticipated that plans will be initiated toward a follow-up mission utilizing one or both of agents ☐, depending upon willingness of agents to undertake another mission; however, it appears most likely that holding and training of these or other agents will have to be undertaken in areas other than SCIDER.
